

D'BUILL'S COUGH SYRUP

DRY GOODS.

OUR

Extraordinary Sale

—OF—

LADIES' WINTER

COATS AND DOLMANS.

Jackets and Ulsters!

Is progressing daily with great advantage and profit to every purchaser.

With three months of winter weather

before us, the opportunity is a very unusual one to secure the best and most carefully made garments at great reductions from previous low prices.

A. Siedenbach & Bro.

1104 MAIN ST.

1,000

REMNANTS!

We have now on our cheap counter quantity of remnants of Dress Gowns, Muslins, Tickings, Embroideries, Laces, &c. Also

Corsets, which we are selling cheap for cash.

We have still an unbroken assortment of

Cloaks, Dolmans, Jackets, Ulsters and Circulars.

Now is your time to invest, as we are closing them out at, and less, than cost.

H. EMSHEIMER

ELEVENTH ST.

Between Main and Market.

HAPPY

NEW YEAR TO ALL!

ONCE MORE WE LEAD OFF.

GRAND SMASH FOR CASH.

For the next THIRTY DAYS we offer our entire stock of

WRAPS!

Consisting of Cloaks, Walking Jackets, Dol-mans, Ulsters, Ullsters, Children's Cloaks, and Hosiery, at positive manufacturing costs.

We also offer for sale Two Cases of SHORT

ENDS OF CLOAKINGS, in half, three-quarter and yard pieces. These goods must and will be sold at any price.

Don't miss this chance for bargains, but call at

BLUM & MARKS.

Cloak House, 1106 Main Street.

Factory, 551 Market Street, Philadelphia.

TO BUYERS

—AND—

CONSUMERS OF OIL.

We desire to give notice that we are supplying the House of 3130 BARK & BROS with our best Oils, both 110 and 110 Fire Test. We guarantee our Oils to be of full fire test, and of pure burning qualities than any Oils of like grade sold in this city.

Our brand ranks among the very best in the

New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Cincinnati markets, and we are confident it will give equal satisfaction here.

BEAR CREEK REFINING CO.,

(Limited)

OF PITTSBURGH, PA.

FOR SALE.

A lot of Piano and Organ Boxes suitable for holding fuel and coal, for sale cheap at

WILSON & BAUMER'S,

1308 Market Street.

The Intelligencer.

Office Nos. 25 and 27 Fourteenth Street.

New Advertisements.

Gems—O. G. Dillon.

Wanted—O. G. Dillon.

For Rent—Dwelling House.

Weather Strip at Kirk's Art Store.

Houses and Lots for Sale at Rent—T. R. H. Sweeney.

The Best Washing Machine on Earth.

One Touch of Winter—B. F. Caldwell.

Our Extraordinary Sale—A. Siedenbach & Bro.

Head of Local.

Head of Piano and Organ Boxes—Head of Local.

Thermometer Record.

The following shows the range of the thermometer, as observed at Schenck's drugstore, Opera House corner, yesterday:

1883

JAN. 11. 53. 54. 55. 56. 57. 58. 59. 60. 61. 62. 63. 64. 65. 66. 67. 68. 69. 70. 71. 72. 73. 74. 75. 76. 77. 78. 79. 80. 81. 82. 83. 84. 85. 86. 87. 88. 89. 90. 91. 92. 93. 94. 95. 96. 97. 98. 99. 100.

WASHINGTON, D. C., January 12, 1883. A. M. For the lower Lake region, fair to light, southwest backing to southerly winds, stationary or higher temperature in the west portion and lower pressure.

For Tennessee and the Ohio Valley, fair weather, winds mostly southerly, stationary or higher temperature and generally lower pressure.

LEGISLATIVE GOSSIP.

SENATORIAL AND GENERAL TALK.

A Kick About the Committees—Some Personal Poles—Will There be a Caucus, and will it be Secretive Among the Democrats.

The Draft of Public Opinion.

For the first working day of the session, the Legislature showed distinguished industry yesterday. Thirty-six bills have already been introduced, and the hopes of those who prophesied a short and not very busy session are ebbing fast. None of the bills are of special public importance or of striking novelty. One bill introduced in the Senate by Mr. Denebo prohibits prize fighting and affixes heavy penalties for engaging in or assisting at the same. A bill proposed by Mr. Davis, in the House, is intended to limit the cause of absolute divorce to marital infidelity. These were the most interesting changes of the day.

In the House some little amusement was caused by a resolution offered by Mr. Evans, approving the passage of the Penitentiary Bill Service bill by the Clerk, leading Democrats looked at each other inquiringly, and finally Mr. Penneybaker arose and remarked that he did not see a Legislature in the House of Virginia had passed on this matter.

He moved that the resolution lie on the table. On this motion Mr. Evans demanded the yeas and nays. Contention arose among the Democratic leaders, but Judge Holt had presence of mind enough to object to the present consideration of the matter. Speaker Woods ruled that this took precedence of the motion to table. Mr. Denebo wanted to see the rule to this effect, but Mr. Penneybaker, for the correction of the record, the Speaker's decision, and that settled it.

Some little flurry was caused by the two resolutions to seat the minority members to either, but they both lay over upon objection to their consideration.

DISASTROUS WITH THE COMMITTEES.

The committees were appointed in the Senate yesterday, and part of them in the House. In the Senate no deep or general discussion was made of the arrangements. Some of the Republican members thought it was scarcely the fair thing to give the minority no representation at all on an important committee as that of the Judiciary, and a few of them thought it would have been better to have had Mr. Dawson or Mr. Moore on the Committee on Finance, instead of a new member, Mr. Farnsworth's colleague. But in the House there was a slight stir. Mr. Penneybaker, second on the Judiciary Committee, while Mr. Armstrong was first. This Mr. Penneybaker said, meant that he was to do all the work and Mr. Armstrong was to get the credit. "I'll get even with Joe Woods for this before the end of the session; you mark my words," said he. His words are marked.

THE SENATORIAL CAUCUS.

The Senate caucus is still the leading topic of conversation. There is constantly a large number of members of both Houses in the lobby at the McIntire House in the evening, and here the candidates for the various offices are making their names known, and are engaged in conversation. Mr. Kenna is apparently the best "nailer," and he is seldom out of sight, and always the centre of an interest group.

A Democratic member who is on the inside of a great many State secrets, and who is noted for his frankness, was approached by an inquisitive member last evening and asked some leading questions about the state of affairs.

"I will just tell you how it stands," said he. "The friends of Mr. Davis, who are quietly working and talking in his interest, begin to be alarmed. The candidacy of Kenna was proposed by the famous 'nailer' only a week or two ago, and he is now selling out in good faith and has created, as you know, quite a little boom. Now Mr. Davis's friends are alarmed. They fear, not only that he will be elected, but that he will be powerful enough to endanger Davis's prospects. They fear that he will break the caucus through his efforts to hold the members together and prevent the Senatorial election."

Said another Democrat, in a position to know the drift of opinion among Kenna's friends, "There will be a caucus next week, but it is extremely doubtful whether anything can be done in caucus after the members do meet. A few are gaining ground that there is trouble ahead."

The two absent Senators, Dr. Barbee, of Point Pleasant, and Mr. Davis, who are quietly working and talking in his interest, begin to be alarmed. The candidacy of Kenna was proposed by the famous 'nailer' only a week or two ago, and he is now selling out in good faith and has created, as you know, quite a little boom. Now Mr. Davis's friends are alarmed. They fear, not only that he will be elected, but that he will be powerful enough to endanger Davis's prospects. They fear that he will break the caucus through his efforts to hold the members together and prevent the Senatorial election."

Said another Democrat, in a position to know the drift of opinion among Kenna's friends, "There will be a caucus next week, but it is extremely doubtful whether anything can be done in caucus after the members do meet. A few are gaining ground that there is trouble ahead."

The two absent Senators, Dr. Barbee, of Point Pleasant, and Mr. Davis, who are quietly working and talking in his interest, begin to be alarmed. The candidacy of Kenna was proposed by the famous 'nailer' only a week or two ago, and he is now selling out in good faith and has created, as you know, quite a little boom. Now Mr. Davis's friends are alarmed. They fear, not only that he will be elected, but that he will be powerful enough to endanger Davis's prospects. They fear that he will break the caucus through his efforts to hold the members together and prevent the Senatorial election."

Said another Democrat, in a position to know the drift of opinion among Kenna's friends, "There will be a caucus next week, but it is extremely doubtful whether anything can be done in caucus after the members do meet. A few are gaining ground that there is trouble ahead."

The two absent Senators, Dr. Barbee, of Point Pleasant, and Mr. Davis, who are quietly working and talking in his interest, begin to be alarmed. The candidacy of Kenna was proposed by the famous 'nailer' only a week or two ago, and he is now selling out in good faith and has created, as you know, quite a little boom. Now Mr. Davis's friends are alarmed. They fear, not only that he will be elected, but that he will be powerful enough to endanger Davis's prospects. They fear that he will break the caucus through his efforts to hold the members together and prevent the Senatorial election."

Said another Democrat, in a position to know the drift of opinion among Kenna's friends, "There will be a caucus next week, but it is extremely doubtful whether anything can be done in caucus after the members do meet. A few are gaining ground that there is trouble ahead."

The two absent Senators, Dr. Barbee, of Point Pleasant, and Mr. Davis, who are quietly working and talking in his interest, begin to be alarmed. The candidacy of Kenna was proposed by the famous 'nailer' only a week or two ago, and he is now selling out in good faith and has created, as you know, quite a little boom. Now Mr. Davis's friends are alarmed. They fear, not only that he will be elected, but that he will be powerful enough to endanger Davis's prospects. They fear that he will break the caucus through his efforts to hold the members together and prevent the Senatorial election."

Said another Democrat, in a position to know the drift of opinion among Kenna's friends, "There will be a caucus next week, but it is extremely doubtful whether anything can be done in caucus after the members do meet. A few are gaining ground that there is trouble ahead."

The two absent Senators, Dr. Barbee, of Point Pleasant, and Mr. Davis, who are quietly working and talking in his interest, begin to be alarmed. The candidacy of Kenna was proposed by the famous 'nailer' only a week or two ago, and he is now selling out in good faith and has created, as you know, quite a little boom. Now Mr. Davis's friends are alarmed. They fear, not only that he will be elected, but that he will be powerful enough to endanger Davis's prospects. They fear that he will break the caucus through his efforts to hold the members together and prevent the Senatorial election."

Said another Democrat, in a position to know the drift of opinion among Kenna's friends, "There will be a caucus next week, but it is extremely doubtful whether anything can be done in caucus after the members do meet. A few are gaining ground that there is trouble ahead."

The two absent Senators, Dr. Barbee, of Point Pleasant, and Mr. Davis, who are quietly working and talking in his interest, begin to be alarmed. The candidacy of Kenna was proposed by the famous 'nailer' only a week or two ago, and he is now selling out in good faith and has created, as you know, quite a little boom. Now Mr. Davis's friends are alarmed. They fear, not only that he will be elected, but that he will be powerful enough to endanger Davis's prospects. They fear that he will break the caucus through his efforts to hold the members together and prevent the Senatorial election."

Said another Democrat, in a position to know the drift of opinion among Kenna's friends, "There will be a caucus next week, but it is extremely doubtful whether anything can be done in caucus after the members do meet. A few are gaining ground that there is trouble ahead."

The two absent Senators, Dr. Barbee, of Point Pleasant, and Mr. Davis, who are quietly working and talking in his interest, begin to be alarmed. The candidacy of Kenna was proposed by the famous 'nailer' only a week or two ago, and he is now selling out in good faith and has created, as you know, quite a little boom. Now Mr. Davis's friends are alarmed. They fear, not only that he will be elected, but that he will be powerful enough to endanger Davis's prospects. They fear that he will break the caucus through his efforts to hold the members together and prevent the Senatorial election."

Said another Democrat, in a position to know the drift of opinion among Kenna's friends, "There will be a caucus next week, but it is extremely doubtful whether anything can be done in caucus after the members do meet. A few are gaining ground that there is trouble ahead."

The two absent Senators, Dr. Barbee, of Point Pleasant, and Mr. Davis, who are quietly working and talking in his interest, begin to be alarmed. The candidacy of Kenna was proposed by the famous 'nailer' only a week or two ago, and he is now selling out in good faith and has created, as you know, quite a little boom. Now Mr. Davis's friends are alarmed. They fear, not only that he will be elected, but that he will be powerful enough to endanger Davis's prospects. They fear that he will break the caucus through his efforts to hold the members together and prevent the Senatorial election."

Said another Democrat, in a position to know the drift of opinion among Kenna's friends, "There will be a caucus next week, but it is extremely doubtful whether anything can be done in caucus after the members do meet. A few are gaining ground that there is trouble ahead."

The two absent Senators, Dr. Barbee, of Point Pleasant, and Mr. Davis, who are quietly working and talking in his interest, begin to be alarmed. The candidacy of Kenna was proposed by the famous 'nailer' only a week or two ago, and he is now selling out in good faith and has created, as you know, quite a little boom. Now Mr. Davis's friends are alarmed. They fear, not only that he will be elected, but that he will be powerful enough to endanger Davis's prospects. They fear that he will break the caucus through his efforts to hold the members together and prevent the Senatorial election."

Said another Democrat, in a position to know the drift of opinion among Kenna's friends, "There will be a caucus next week, but it is extremely doubtful whether anything can be done in caucus after the members do meet. A few are gaining ground that there is trouble ahead."

The two absent Senators, Dr. Barbee, of Point Pleasant, and Mr. Davis, who are quietly working and talking in his interest, begin to be alarmed. The candidacy of Kenna was proposed by the famous 'nailer' only a week or two ago, and he is now selling out in good faith and has created, as you know, quite a little boom. Now Mr. Davis's friends are alarmed. They fear, not only that he will be elected, but that he will be powerful enough to endanger Davis's prospects. They fear that he will break the caucus through his efforts to hold the members together and prevent the Senatorial election."

Said another Democrat, in a position to know the drift of opinion among Kenna's friends, "There will be a caucus next week, but it is extremely doubtful whether anything can be done in caucus after the members do meet. A few are gaining ground that there is trouble ahead."

The two absent Senators, Dr. Barbee, of Point Pleasant, and Mr. Davis, who are quietly working and talking in his interest, begin to be alarmed. The candidacy of Kenna was proposed by the famous 'nailer' only a week or two ago, and he is now selling out in good faith and has created, as you know, quite a little boom. Now Mr. Davis's friends are alarmed. They fear, not only that he will be elected, but that he will be powerful enough to endanger Davis's prospects. They fear that he will break the caucus through his efforts to hold the members together and prevent the Senatorial election."

Said another Democrat, in a position to know the drift of opinion among Kenna's friends, "There will be a caucus next week, but it is extremely doubtful whether anything can be done in caucus after the members do meet. A few are gaining ground that there is trouble ahead."

The two absent Senators, Dr. Barbee, of Point Pleasant, and Mr. Davis, who are quietly working and talking in his interest, begin to be alarmed. The candidacy of Kenna was proposed by the famous 'nailer' only a week or two ago, and he is now selling out in good faith and has created, as you know, quite a little boom. Now Mr. Davis's friends are alarmed. They fear, not only that he will be elected, but that he will be powerful enough to endanger Davis's prospects. They fear that he will break the caucus through his efforts to hold the members together and prevent the Senatorial election."

Said another Democrat, in a position to know the drift of opinion among Kenna's friends, "There will be a caucus next week, but it is extremely doubtful whether anything can be done in caucus after the members do meet. A few are gaining ground that there is trouble ahead."

The two absent Senators, Dr. Barbee, of Point Pleasant, and Mr. Davis, who are quietly working and talking in his interest, begin to be alarmed. The candidacy of Kenna was proposed by the famous 'nailer' only a week or two ago, and he is now selling out in good faith and has created, as you know, quite a little boom. Now Mr. Davis's friends are alarmed. They fear, not only that he will be elected, but that he will be powerful enough to endanger Davis's prospects. They fear that he will break the caucus through his efforts to hold the members together and prevent the Senatorial election."

Said another Democrat, in a position to know the drift of opinion among Kenna's friends, "There will be a caucus next week, but it is extremely doubtful whether anything can be done in caucus after the members do meet. A few are gaining ground that there is trouble ahead."

The two absent Senators, Dr. Barbee, of Point Pleasant, and Mr. Davis, who are quietly working and talking in his interest, begin to be alarmed. The candidacy of Kenna was proposed by the famous 'nailer' only a week or two ago, and he is now selling out in good faith and has created, as you know, quite a little boom. Now Mr. Davis's friends are alarmed. They fear, not only that he will be elected, but that he will be powerful enough to endanger Davis's prospects. They fear that he will break the caucus through his efforts to hold the members together and prevent the Senatorial election."

Said another Democrat, in a position to know the drift of opinion among Kenna's friends, "There will be a caucus next week, but it is extremely doubtful whether anything can be done in caucus after the members do meet. A few are gaining ground that there is trouble ahead."

The two absent Senators, Dr. Barbee, of Point Pleasant, and Mr. Davis, who are quietly working and talking in his interest, begin to be alarmed. The candidacy of Kenna was proposed by the famous 'nailer' only a week or two ago, and he is now selling out in good faith and has created, as you know, quite a little boom. Now Mr. Davis's friends are alarmed. They fear, not only that he will be elected, but that he will be powerful enough to endanger Davis's prospects. They fear that he will break the caucus through his efforts to hold the members together and prevent the Senatorial election."

Said another Democrat, in a position to know the drift of opinion among Kenna's friends, "There will be a caucus next week, but it is extremely doubtful whether anything can be done in caucus after the members do meet. A few are gaining ground that there is trouble ahead."

The two absent Senators, Dr. Barbee, of Point Pleasant, and Mr. Davis, who are quietly working and talking in his interest, begin to be alarmed. The candidacy of Kenna was proposed by the famous 'nailer' only a week or two ago, and he is now selling out in good faith and has created, as you know, quite a little boom. Now Mr. Davis's friends are alarmed. They fear, not only that he will be elected, but that he will be powerful enough to endanger Davis's prospects. They fear that he will break the caucus through his efforts to hold the members together and prevent the Senatorial election."

Said another Democrat, in a position to know the drift of opinion among Kenna's friends, "There will be a caucus next week, but it is extremely doubtful whether anything can be done in caucus after the members do meet. A few are gaining ground that there is trouble ahead."

The two absent Senators, Dr. Barbee, of Point Pleasant, and Mr. Davis, who are quietly working and talking in his interest, begin to be alarmed. The candidacy of Kenna was proposed by the famous 'nailer' only a week or two ago, and he is now selling out in good faith and has created, as you know, quite a little boom. Now Mr. Davis's friends are alarmed. They fear, not only that he will be elected, but that he will be powerful enough to endanger Davis's prospects. They fear that he will break the caucus through his efforts to hold the members together and prevent the Senatorial election."

Said another Democrat, in a position to know the drift of opinion among Kenna's friends, "There will be a caucus next week, but it is extremely doubtful whether anything can be done in caucus after the members do meet. A few are gaining ground that there is trouble ahead."

The two absent Senators, Dr. Barbee, of Point Pleasant, and Mr. Davis, who are quietly working and talking in his interest, begin to be alarmed. The candidacy of Kenna was proposed by the famous 'nailer' only a week or two ago, and he is now selling out in good faith and has created, as you know, quite a little boom. Now Mr. Davis's friends are alarmed. They fear, not only that he will be elected, but that he will be powerful enough to endanger Davis's prospects. They fear that he will break the caucus through his efforts to hold the members together and prevent the Senatorial election."

Said another Democrat, in a position to know the drift of opinion among Kenna's friends, "There will be a caucus next week, but it is extremely doubtful whether anything can be done in caucus after the members do meet. A few are gaining ground that there is trouble ahead."

The two absent Senators, Dr. Barbee, of Point Pleasant, and Mr. Davis, who are quietly working and talking in his interest, begin to be alarmed. The candidacy of Kenna was proposed by the famous 'nailer' only a week or two ago, and he is now selling out in good faith and has created, as you know, quite a little boom. Now Mr. Davis's friends are alarmed. They fear, not only that he will be elected, but that he will be powerful enough to endanger Davis's prospects. They fear that he will break the caucus through his efforts to hold the members together and prevent the Senatorial election."

Said another Democrat, in a position to know the drift of opinion among Kenna's friends, "There will be a caucus next week, but it is extremely doubtful whether anything can be done in caucus after the members do meet. A few are gaining ground that there is trouble ahead."

The two absent Senators, Dr. Barbee, of Point Pleasant, and Mr. Davis, who are quietly working and talking in his interest, begin to be alarmed. The candidacy of Kenna was proposed by the famous 'nailer' only a week or two ago, and he is now selling out in good faith and has created, as you know, quite a little boom. Now Mr. Davis's friends are alarmed. They fear, not only that he will be elected, but that he will be powerful enough to endanger Davis's prospects. They fear that he will break the caucus through his efforts to hold the members together and prevent the Senatorial election."

Said another Democrat, in a position to know the drift of opinion among Kenna's friends, "There will be a caucus next week, but it is extremely doubtful whether anything can be done in caucus after the members do meet. A few are gaining ground that there is trouble ahead."

The two absent Senators, Dr. Barbee, of Point Pleasant, and Mr. Davis, who are quietly working and talking in his interest, begin to be alarmed. The candidacy of Kenna was proposed by the famous 'nailer' only a week or two ago, and he is now selling out in good faith and has created, as you know, quite a little boom. Now Mr. Davis's friends are alarmed. They fear, not only that he will be elected, but that he will be powerful enough to endanger Davis's prospects. They fear that he will break the caucus through his efforts to hold the members together and prevent the Senatorial election."

Said another Democrat, in a position to know the drift of opinion among Kenna's friends, "There will be a caucus next week, but it is extremely doubtful whether anything can be done in caucus after the members do meet. A few are gaining ground that there is trouble ahead."

The two absent Senators, Dr. Barbee, of Point Pleasant, and Mr. Davis, who are quietly working and talking in his interest, begin to be alarmed. The candidacy of Kenna was proposed by the famous 'nailer' only a week or two ago, and he is now selling out in good faith and has created, as you know, quite a little boom. Now Mr. Davis's friends are alarmed. They fear, not only that he will be elected, but that he will be powerful enough to endanger Davis's prospects. They fear that he will break the caucus through his efforts to hold the members together and prevent the Senatorial election."

Said another Democrat, in a position to know the drift of opinion among Kenna's friends, "There will be a caucus next week, but it is extremely doubtful whether anything can be done in caucus after the members do meet. A few are gaining ground that there is trouble ahead."

The two absent Senators, Dr. Barbee, of Point Pleasant, and Mr. Davis, who are quietly working and talking in his interest, begin to be alarmed. The candidacy of Kenna was proposed by the famous 'nailer' only a week or two ago, and he is now selling out in good faith and has created, as you know, quite a little boom. Now Mr. Davis's friends are alarmed. They fear, not only that he will be elected, but that he will be powerful enough to endanger Davis's prospects. They fear that he will break the caucus through his efforts to hold the members together and prevent the Senatorial election."

Said another Democrat, in a position to know the drift of opinion among Kenna's friends, "There will be a caucus next week, but it is extremely doubtful whether anything can be done in caucus after the members do meet. A few are gaining ground that there is trouble ahead."

The two absent Senators, Dr. Barbee, of Point Pleasant, and Mr. Davis, who are quietly working and talking in his interest, begin to be alarmed. The candidacy of Kenna was proposed by the famous 'nailer' only a week or two ago, and he is now selling out in good faith and has created, as you know, quite a little boom. Now Mr. Davis's friends are alarmed. They fear, not only that he will be elected, but that he will be powerful enough to endanger Davis's prospects. They fear that he will break the caucus through his efforts to hold the members together and prevent the Senatorial election."

Said another Democrat, in a position to know the drift of opinion among Kenna's friends, "There will be a caucus next week, but it is extremely doubtful whether anything can be done in caucus after the members do meet. A few are gaining ground that there is trouble ahead."

The two absent Senators, Dr. Barbee, of Point Pleasant, and Mr. Davis, who are quietly working and talking in his interest, begin to be alarmed. The candidacy of Kenna was proposed by the famous 'nailer' only a week or two ago, and he is now selling out in good faith and has created, as you know, quite a little boom. Now Mr. Davis's friends are alarmed. They fear, not only that he will be elected, but that he will be powerful enough to endanger Davis's prospects. They fear that he will break the caucus through his efforts to hold the members together and prevent the Senatorial election."

Said another Democrat, in a position to know the drift of opinion among Kenna's friends, "There will be a caucus next week, but it is extremely doubtful whether anything can be done in caucus after the members do meet. A few are gaining ground that there is trouble ahead."

The two absent Senators, Dr. Barbee, of Point Pleasant, and Mr. Davis, who are quietly working and talking in his interest, begin to be alarmed. The candidacy of Kenna was proposed by the famous 'nailer' only a week or two ago, and he is now selling out in good faith and has created, as you know, quite a little boom. Now Mr. Davis's friends are alarmed. They fear, not only that he will be elected, but that he will be powerful enough to endanger Davis's prospects. They fear that he will break the caucus through his efforts to hold the members together and prevent the Senatorial election."

Said another Democrat, in a position to know the drift of opinion among Kenna's friends, "There will be a caucus next week, but it is extremely doubtful whether anything can be done in caucus after the members do meet. A few are gaining ground that there is trouble ahead."

The two absent Senators, Dr. Barbee, of Point Pleasant, and Mr. Davis, who are quietly working and talking in his interest, begin to be alarmed. The candidacy of K